

2007-2008 Key Results
Clinical and Scientific Affairs Council

1. Review the AAPA policy manual, identify deficiencies in policies related to clinical practice and public health and draft new policies for consideration by the House of Delegates. [SMD link: Strengthen AAPA and its Constituent Organizations – 1]
2. Review, endorse and disseminate clinical practice guidelines. [Strengthen and Promote the PA Profession – 1; Strengthen Physician-PA Team Practice – 2; Strengthen National and International Health Care Systems – 2]
3. Develop clinical and scientific recommendations and papers. Facilitate dissemination to the membership at large. [SMD link: Strengthen and Promote the PA Profession – 2; Strengthen Physician-PA team Practice – 1; Strengthen National and International Health Care Systems – 5; Strengthen AAPA and its Constituent Organizations – 2]
4. Coordinate, integrate and support the responsibilities and activities of the clinical representatives. Communicate the activities and disseminate information to BOD and membership at large in a timely manner. [SMD link: Strengthen and promote the PA profession – 1 and 2]
5. Present clinical information and provide guidance on clinical topics at AAPA's Annual Conference. [SMD link: Strengthen and Promote the PA Profession – 2 and 3]
6. Sponsor and enhance the AAPA's Clinical and Professional poster session at the annual conference. [SMD link: Strengthen and Promote the PA Profession – 2]
7. Use the goals and principles of Healthy People 2010 to guide the Council's selection of prevention and clinical topics. Review AAPA's activities and identify other steps to advance this agenda. [SMD link: Strengthen National and International Health Care Systems – 3, 4 and 5]