

AAPA EXHIBITOR RULES AND REGULATIONS

A. AAPA RIGHTS AND DUTIES

1. Contract for Space. The Contract, the formal notice of space assignment by the American Academy of Physician Associates (hereinafter referred to as "AAPA" or "Show Management" along with these Exhibitor Rules and Regulations herein, any subsequent rules and regulations adopted by AAPA with regard to AAPA 2025 constitute this Contract ("Contract" or "Rules and Regulations") between AAPA and the Exhibitor (as defined below) (together, the "Parties") for the right to exhibit at AAPA 2025, May 17 – 19, 2025. All matters regarding these Rules and Regulations and Exhibitor's compliance therewith shall be determined by Show Management in its sole and absolute discretion.
2. Permission to Exhibit. AAPA reserves the right to decide who may participate. AAPA need not give a reason for not allowing a proposed Exhibitor to participate. If AAPA finds anything an Exhibitor's booth questionable, including giveaways, AAPA reserves the right to further review your presence on the show floor and refuse participation. All giveaways must be approved by AAPA.
3. Definitions. As used herein:
"Exhibitor" shall mean the entity or individual that applied for exhibit space and each of its officers, directors, shareholders, employees, agents, contractors, representatives and/or invitees, as applicable.
"Conference" shall mean AAPA 2025
"Expo" shall mean AAPA 2025

Half Payment of the applicable exhibition fee is due within 30 days following AAPA's acceptance of Exhibitor's application to participate in the Expo, full payment is due by January 31, 2025. Any booths reserved after January 31, 2025 will submit payment within 30 days following AAPA's acceptance of Exhibitor's application to participate in the Expo. Exhibitor's failure to make full and timely payment shall be considered a material breach of this Contract: giving rise to AAPA's right to cancel Exhibitor's participation at the Expo in its discretion. Additionally, Exhibitor shall be responsible for any interest payments and collection costs (including attorney's fees) incurred by AAPA in its attempt to collect a delinquent payment from Exhibitor.
5. Service Provided. In exchange for payment in full for the booth (s) contracted by the Exhibitor, Show Management will provide the following: Four (4) complimentary booth registration badges per 10'x10' booth space; access to the Expo, main stage sessions, Continuing Medical Education (CME) Sessions (not eligible to claim CME) Exhibitors are welcome to attend PA Night Out by purchasing a ticket to the event. Additional Exhibitor booth badges can be purchased for fifty dollars ($50) each, a basic online company listing, and marketing tools. Inline booths, 10'x10' to 10'x40', will receive a 8' high and 3' side pipe and drape and a complimentary company sign. Please note: Carpet/flooring (required), furnishings, Internet, and other utilities are NOT included in the booth fee unless otherwise noted.
6. Space Assignments. Space assignments are at AAPA's discretion. AAPA may consider, but will not be bound by, Exhibitor's space request on application. AAPA will continue making space assignments until approximately seven (7) days before the Conference, providing Exhibitor ensures AAPA that it will set up its booth by 2 p.m. on the day the Expo opens. Due to the number of companies exhibiting similar or related product lines, Show Management cannot guarantee that a company exhibiting similar products (including a competitor of Exhibitor) will not be in a nearby or adjoining booth space.
7. Adjust Booth Assignment. Show Management reserves the right to change the floor plan (including, but not limited to aisle spaces), without notice, in order to comply with fire, safety and accessibility regulations or to provide, in its exclusive judgement, a safer, more satisfactory, attractive and successful Expo.
8. Exhibitor Listing/Photographs. By participating in the Expo, Exhibitor grants to Show Management a perpetual, fully paid, non-exclusive license to use, reproduce, and display its name, trade name(s) of its product(s) and service(s) in any directory or other listing of Expo Exhibitors in any and all media, including, without limitation, print and electronic media. In no event shall Show Management be responsible for the omission of Exhibitor from any directory or other listing. Exhibitor agrees that Show Management may photograph or video record Exhibitor's exhibit and workers, before and during the Expo and may use the same for promotional purposes. Exhibitor warrants that it owns all intellectual property that it will use at the Expo or that it otherwise has the legal right to use the intellectual property, pursuant to a valid license agreement.

Additionally, AAPA reserves all rights not expressly granted in this Contract. Any name, logo, identifying AAPA and its offerings are proprietary marks of AAPA and any use of such marks without AAPA's express written permission is strictly prohibited by Exhibitor or by any party. Any other company names mentioned during the Expo may be the trademarks and service marks of their respective owners.

9. Move-in/Move-out. Time periods, deadlines, and restrictions for move-in and move-out of exhibit areas shall be determined by Show Management in its sole discretion and all Exhibitors shall be given adequate notice thereof.
All exhibit/displays must remain staffed and fully intact until the end of the trade show. Premature dismantling of and/or failure to fully staff said space during the entire Expo will not be able to purchase booth space at the discounted rate and will be penalized by Show Management at any future AAPA conferences.
10. Exhibit Hours. Expo hours will be determined and posted by AAPA prior to show date. (Hours may be changed at any time at the discretion of Show Management.)
11. Entering and Changing Exhibits. To maintain compliance with this Contract and the Exhibitor Resource Center, AAPA may enter Exhibitor's space and may require Exhibitor to change a display or demonstration in its exhibit.
12. Exhibit Specification. The height of display shall be limited to the height of the 8' high pipe and drape for all inline booths (10'x10' – 10'x40'). Exhibitors shall limit the height of the display material at the sides to 4', from the front of their exhibit to a depth of 5'. The height restriction for all island booths (20'x20' or larger) is 22' for hanging signs and 16' for hard walls. Show Management must approve in writing any display that exceeds these specifications. Unfinished sides left exposed shall be draped or finished at the expense of the Exhibitor. No exhibit shall be allowed to project into the aisle beyond the space assigned. Exhibit booth displays in the show requiring height clearance, beyond the previous standard height dimensions must have written approval from the Show Management. These enlarged displays are encouraged and will be allowed in specific areas of the show floor. Proposals for such displays must be presented in writing for approval prior to show set-up time. Island booths cannot be enclosed, obstructing the line of vision of booths around it.
13. Security. AAPA will provide overall security guard service during the Conference but is not responsible to Exhibitor for loss of any type resulting from Exhibitor's assertion of insufficient security. Exhibitor's will be responsible for providing, at Exhibitor's own expense, any security necessary for its exhibit.
14. Conference Contractors. AAPA has selected contractors to perform services at the Conference. Contractors will appear in the Exhibitor Resource Center. AAPA has no responsibility for services performed, prices charged, or materials delivered by those contractors. AAPA has no responsibility for resolving disputes between Exhibitor and those contractors.

15. Attendance: Admission to the Expo during exhibit hours will be available to all registered attendees. Move-in and move-out times will be by Exhibitor registration badges or wristbands only and all Exhibitor personnel must abide by established registration fee and/or policy requirements of the Expo. Show Management makes reasonable attempts to attract qualified attendees to the Expo, but does not guarantee specific volumes or levels of attendees
16. No-Shows. If Exhibitor does not staff its booth on time and does not notify AAPA in writing that its staff will be delayed or will not attend, Exhibitor will forfeit fees paid. If Exhibitor does not complete booth construction by 2 p.m. on the day the Expo opens, AAPA may reassign that space, keep fees paid, and have no responsibility for Exhibitor's expenses.
17. Relocation or Rescheduling. AAPA reserves the right to change the location and scheduled dates of the Conference. In either of those events, AAPA will provide Exhibitor, written notice no later than thirty (30) days before the earlier of:
 - the original move-in date, or
 - the new move-in date
18. AAPA Force Majeure/Conference Cancellation: If the Conference is canceled for any reason such as acts of God (including adverse weather), public enemy, war, domestic or international terrorism, riot, embargo, sabotage, flood, accident, fire, explosion, labor union action or pandemic; compliance with an order of a court, an arbitrator, or government agency; insufficient Exhibitors or registrants (in AAPA's sole discretion); a reason that AAPA determines would make holding the Conference imprudent or impractical, or another cause beyond AAPA's reasonable control, then Exhibitor, or AAPA may terminate this Contract by providing written notice to the other and will have no further obligations to each other. In that event, AAPA may, refund all, part, or none of the Exhibitor fees in its sole discretion.
19. Exhibitor Cancellation Notification:
 - Any withdrawal by Exhibitor for exhibit space, cancellation of exhibit space or reduction in size of exhibit space must be made in writing to Show Management.
 - If Exhibitor withdraws Contract, or reduces/cancels exhibit space, Exhibitor shall forfeit all rights in and to the use of any contracted exhibit space. In such case, Exhibitor shall have no right to a listing in the online Exhibitor directory, Exhibitor badges, or Exhibitor hotel rooms. Show Management shall have the right to dispose of the released space in such a way as it may consider in its interests (including re-sale of such exhibit space).

Refunds for cancellations and/or downgrades will be determined by the following schedule:

 - Cancellations received prior to January 31, 2025 will be charged fifty (50%) of the value of the booth space regardless of payment

- NO REFUNDS WHATSOEVER ON OR AFTER January 31, 2025. Cancellations received after January 31, 2025 will be charged one hundred percent (100%) of the value of the booth space regardless of payment

B. EXHIBITOR RIGHTS AND DUTIES

In order to provide a well-balanced, well-regulated, attractive, and successful Expo, no exceptions to the following rules will be permitted. Show Management shall enforce strict compliance with these Rules and Regulations.

1. Location and Proximity. Exhibitor will exhibit even if AAPA does not meet Exhibitor's space location and proximity preferences. Exhibitor may or may not retain its original space location if it requests increased or decreased space. Exhibitor's choice to cancel due to space location or proximity preferences will be subject to the cancellation notification requirements in Section 19 above.
2. Booth Flooring. Exhibitors have the sole responsibility to provide floor covering for their booth. All booths must have suitable floor covering to exhibit. If floor covering is not in place by the morning of the opening of the Expo, Freeman (official service contractor) will place carpet the Exhibitor's booth, at the standard, on-site rate. Costs for forced placement of carpet is the responsibility of the Exhibitor.
3. Vehicles. All vehicles must be approved by AAPA Show Management and the Facility and abide by certain guidelines provided by the Convention Center posted in the Exhibitor Resource Center. Vehicles are permitted for island booths (20'x20' or larger) ONLY.
4. Expo Policy/ No "Suitcasing". *Suitcasing: is the act of soliciting business in the aisles during the Expo or in other public spaces, including another company's booth or hotel lobby.

Please note that while all meeting attendees are invited to the Expo, any attendee who is observed to be soliciting business in the aisles or other public spaces, in another company's booth, or in violation of any portion of the Expo Policy posted in the Exhibitor Resource Center, will be asked to leave immediately. Please report any violations to Show Management. Show Management recognizes that suitcasing may also take the form of commercial activity conducted from a hotel guest room or hospitality suite; a restaurant, club, or any other public place of assembly. For the purposes of this policy, suitcasing violations may occur at venues other than the Expo floor and at other events. Show Management must be informed of any hospitality suites, and expressed consent must be received prior to the event.

5. Prohibitions.
 - a. Exhibitor shall not in any manner indicate that an AAPA endorsement or approval of Exhibitor's product(s) or service(s) has been given by AAPA merely because AAPA has allowed such product(s) or service(s) or literature to be displayed in its Expo; this includes but is not limited to the use of the AAPA logo.
 - b. Serving of alcoholic beverages, use of animals (except seeing eye dogs), conducting illegal activities such as any form of gambling, or conducting cash transactions is prohibited.

- c. Only one company is permitted to occupy each booth space. More than one company is not permitted to purchase a booth together. Exhibitor shall not assign, sublet or apportion the whole or any portion of the allotted booth, nor exhibit therein any literature or display other than that produced or distributed by the Exhibitor in the regular course of Exhibitor's business. Exhibitor personnel must be representative(s) of the contracting company. Contracting company must be company exhibiting. Companies with separate divisions operating under different names must purchase separate booths. Exhibitors may promote their product service lines notwithstanding the fact that those product services may be manufactured by other companies.
- d. Exhibitors may not deface or otherwise obstruct the view, logo or branding of materials or events sponsored by other companies throughout the Conference, i.e., signs, badge holders, Conference bags, etc.
- e. Children under the age of eighteen (18), including infants, are welcome in the public spaces of the Convention Center. During normal Expo hours (Sunday and Monday), children under the age of eighteen (18) will be admitted only with parental supervision. No one under (eighteen) 18 years of age will be allowed in the Expo during move-in and move-out
- f. Tacking, posting, taping or nailing signs, banners, etc. to any permanent walls or woodwork will not be permitted. AAPA is not responsible for any damage to the Expo caused by Exhibitors, and any such damage to the Expo caused by an act or omission by Exhibitors or their employees or agents shall be paid for by the Exhibitor causing such damage.
- g. No visual or audio recording or transmission of AAPA 2025 may be made by or on behalf of the Exhibitor without the prior written consent at least thirty (30) days prior to show date, of AAPA and the hotel and/or Convention Center. Exhibitors may also not download, distribute, or sell any recordings made during the Conference, whether taken by Exhibitor or by another party, in part or in full, without obtaining written consent from AAPA and the Convention Center.
- h. Exhibitors should be aware that music played in their booths, whether live or recorded, may be subject to laws governing the use of copyrighted compositions. ASCAP, BMI, and SESAC are three (3) authorized licensing organizations that collect copyright fees on behalf of composers and publishers of music. Show Management does not have a license with any licensing agencies; therefore Exhibitor is responsible for obtaining any necessary rights directly. Adherence to these federally mandated copyright licensing laws is of critical importance. Exhibitor will hold harmless, indemnify, and defend AAPA and the Convention Center from any damages stemming from Exhibitor's

- violation of third-party intellectual property rights that may arise from Exhibitor's unauthorized use of music at the Expo.
- i. In general, Exhibitors may use sound equipment in their booths so long as the noise level does not, in the exclusive judgement of Show Management, disrupt the activities of neighboring Exhibitors. Speakers and other sound devices should be positioned so as to direct sound into the booth rather than into the aisle or into neighboring booths. Rule of thumb: sound and noise should not exceed eighty-five (85) decibels when measured from the aisle immediately in front of a booth (refer to OSHA regulations at www.osha.gov for more information).
 - j. Lighting elements must be contained within the confines of the contracted exhibit space and not protrude into the aisles. This includes all truss work, lighting apparatus, projection equipment, etc. All lighting must be directed into the exhibit space and may not project into the aisles or onto neighboring exhibits. Strobe, flashing and rotating lights are not permitted without the advance written approval of AAPA Show Management.
 - No spotlight may be directed toward the aisles or so directed that it proves to be irritating or distracting to neighboring exhibit booths or guests
 - Droplights or special lighting devices must be hung at a level or positioned so as not to prove to be an irritant or distraction to neighboring exhibit booths or guests
 - k. Distribution by Exhibitors of any free printed matter, promotional materials, etc. is strictly limited to the confines of the Exhibitor's space. Exhibitors may staff their booth(s) with a maximum of eight (8) people permitted per one hundred (100) square feet of booth space. Exhibitors are encouraged to make displays educational and communicative. Distribution of literature, demonstrations, explanations, sales talks, negotiations, and registration of prospects are specifically allowed within contracted space, as well as actual sales on the floor and taking of orders/sales for future delivery. Exhibitors are prohibited from soliciting customers in other Exhibitors' booths, in the aisle(s) immediately in front of their booth(s) or in any other areas of the Facility, e.g. the front door. Exhibitor representatives should be attired professionally and maintain a businesslike climate conducive with the Conference.
 - l. Exhibitor will not display or promote goods or services that it did not manufacture or sell in the normal course of business for at least three (3) consecutive months before the Conference.
 - m. Exhibitor will display only products and services that meet the standards of generally accepted medical practices or that are relevant to the clinical or socioeconomic practice of medicine.
 - n. Products that require marketing approval by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) must receive that approval before being exhibited.
 - o. Exhibitor may not conduct clinical testing without AAPA consent, which Exhibitor must request in writing at least forty-five (45) calendar days before the Conference. If testing includes human blood samples, Exhibitor must dispose of those samples legally.
 - p. Sales Tax: Payment of any state and local taxes is the sole responsibility of the Exhibitor.
 - q. The official material handling contractor will handle and provide storage space for crates, boxes, skids, etc., during the Expo and return properly marked materials at the completion of the Conference. Materials not in accordance with these regulations will be discarded.
 - r. Multi-story exhibits – Booth displays with two (2) or more levels (must be an island booth – 20'x20' or larger) must receive prior approval by the Convention Center and AAPA Show Management
6. Conflicting Activities. Exhibiting companies of AAPA 2025 are not permitted to hold events that conflict with the AAPA 2025 hours and/or AAPA-hosted events (i.e., PA Night Out, Expo, CME Sessions, etc.). All hosted events must be approved by AAPA (for groups larger than five (5) individuals). Conflicting Exhibitor events include, but are not limited to, hospitality suites, group functions, private events, and off-site events, and are at the discretion of Show Management. Exhibiting companies who host/participate in any event that is in violation of this policy will be subject to penalty and may include:
- Loss of any discounts on Exhibitor booth rates for future AAPA expositions
 - Suspension from participating in future AAPA events
- Approved Exhibitor event times for AAPA 2025 will be announced in September 2024.
7. Code of Conduct. AAPA is committed to providing a safe, supportive and respectful Conference experience regardless of a person's race, color, ethnicity, national origin, citizenship status, age, religion, disability status, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, genetic information, physical appearance, or other characteristics. AAPA expects Exhibitor to communicate professionally and constructively and conduct itself in a courteous and professional manner at all times.
 8. Compliance. Exhibitor and AAPA will comply with this entire Contract. Exhibitor will also comply with Convention Center rules (available from AAPA before the Conference) as well as guidelines established by the FDA, PhARMA, and AdvMed. Exhibitor and AAPA will also comply with applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and ordinances, including without limitation the Americans with Disabilities Act. Exhibitor will inform all its employees and agents of this compliance requirement and will be responsible for their compliance.
 9. Violations: Despite anything else in this Contract, including without limitation the Dispute Resolution Section, if Exhibitor violates this Contract before or during the Conference, AAPA may in its sole discretion deny Exhibitor access to or have security personnel remove Exhibitor personnel and property (at Exhibitor's expense) from the Conference and Expo, in which event Exhibitor will not be entitled to a fee refund, expense reimbursement, or other amounts from AAPA.

10. Union Rules. Exhibitor is expected to comply with the union requirements in effect for the location of AAPA 2025. Additional information from the AAPA decorator will be included in the Exhibitor Resource Center.
11. Labor. Exhibitors agree that labor used in erecting their booths shall not cause stoppage on injury to AAPA 2025 or any other visitor.

C. GENERAL RIGHTS AND DUTIES

1. Amendment: Show Management reserves the right to make reasonable changes in the foregoing rules and/or AAPA Expo and move-in/move-out arrangements; as such changes have been approved by the AAPA. All Rules and Regulations are subject to the terms and conditions contained in any agreement with the hotel and/or Convention Center and should be expressly incorporated into any such agreement. Any and all matters not specifically covered by the preceding Rules and Regulations, and the policies and requirements set forth in this Contract, invoice notice, and Exhibitor Resource Center shall be determined by Show Management in conjunction with AAPA 2025, in AAPA's sole discretion. Show Management shall have the full power to interpret, amend, and enforce these rules and regulations, provided any amendments, when made, are brought to the notice of the Exhibitor. The Exhibitor, for itself and its employees, agrees to abide by the foregoing rules and regulations and by any amendments or additions thereto in conformance with the preceding sentence.
2. Assignment or Subcontracting. Exhibitor will not assign or subcontract this Contract, its exhibit space, or its duties.
3. Dispute Resolution. Except as provided above under Violations:
 - a. The Parties must submit all disputes to binding arbitration including without limitation disputes based on breach of contract, negligence, strict liability, or intentional acts or omissions. No disputes may be litigated, except the Parties may apply to a court for a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or other equitable relief to preserve the status quo or prevent irreparable harm.
 - b. The Parties will conduct arbitration, including selection of an arbitrator, using expedited arbitration procedures for commercial disputes published by the American Arbitration Association (AAA), whether or not a dispute meets AAA criteria for expedited procedures, and will hold all proceedings in Alexandria, VA.
4. Governing Law. This Contract will be construed and enforced under the laws of Commonwealth of Virginia, without regard to that jurisdiction's conflict of laws rules.
5. Indemnification.
 - a. Despite anything else in this Contract, Exhibitor will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless AAPA, its members, employees, agents, officers, directors, affiliates, attorneys, and other representatives ("Indemnities") from all actions and causes of action, claims, demands, liabilities, losses from personal injury and property damage, other losses, damages, fines, taxes, penalties, awards, settlement costs, judgments, interest, attorney fees, court costs, and all other costs, expenses, and charges ("Expenses") which Indemnities incur by reason of a third-party claim directly or indirectly attributable or related to, resulting or arising from, or in connection with, Exhibitor's act or, omission, under this Contract ("Claims").
 - b. If Exhibitor delays providing legal counsel to defend Indemnities, and as a result Indemnities incur legal expenses, Exhibitor will reimburse those expenses at least monthly, upon presentation of attorney invoices.
 - c. After Exhibitor retains legal counsel to defend Indemnities, they may also retain separate legal counsel at their own expense.
6. Insurance. Throughout the Conference, including move-in and move-out days, Exhibitor will maintain at its sole expense all insurance necessary to comply with its obligations and responsibility at the in-person Conference. Exhibitor will supply AAPA before the Conference with its insurance certificate that clearly states that:
 - a. all Exhibitor obligations and liability under this Contract are insured and must carry general liability coverage from an insurance company in good standing with minimum policy limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence and $2,000,000 aggregate, and;
 - b. AAPA is a named insured and a certificate holder for the listed policies.
7. Liability.
 - a. AAPA is liable to Exhibitor only for failure to provide exhibit space as required. AAPA's maximum liability to Exhibitor will be the lesser of:
 - i. total fees Exhibitor pays net of the submitted deposit, or
 - ii. the smaller amount specified elsewhere in this Contract under circumstances there described.
 - b. Neither AAPA nor its respective officers, agents, employees, or representatives shall be liable to Exhibitor for loss or damage suffered by Exhibitor or a third party, including without limitation on occupant of or visitor to Exhibitor's booth, as a result of:
 - i. an act or omission of AAPA or a third party, or
 - ii. Exhibitor's violation of applicable law, including violation of third-party proprietary rights, or Exhibitor's own negligence or willful misconduct, or
 - iii. AAPA's, in its direction, cancellation or rescheduling of the Expo, or AAPA's change of Exhibitor's event booth assignment, or
 - iv. Exhibitor's failure to review and comply with the provisions of the Exhibitor Resource Center, or with the terms of this Contract.

- c. Exhibitor is liable to AAPA for its own (and its affiliates, contractors, officers, directors, employees, and other agents) negligent, intentional, or willful acts and omissions, breach of contract or warranty, default, misrepresentation, fraud, or misappropriation, directly or indirectly attributable or related to, resulting or arising from, or in connection with this Contract, or violation of any applicable laws. This liability is not limited to:
 - i. insurance coverage limits, or
 - ii. uninsured losses. Exhibitor's liability includes without limitation all AAPA damages from loss of exhibit space rental fees and all parties' use or misuse of Exhibitor's space. Exhibitor is responsible to the Convention Center for all damage Exhibitor causes to that facility.
- 8. Representations and Warranties. Exhibitor represents and warrants that it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing in its state of organization, and has the full power and authority to enter into this Contract and fulfill its obligations hereunder. Exhibitor further represents and warrants that it will comply with all applicable statutes, ordinances, regulations, and laws applicable to its rights, actions, and obligations hereunder, including without limitation an obligation not to violate any: (i) intellectual property or other personal right of any individual or entity; (ii) applicable advertising or marketing law; or (iii) rules provided by AAPA or the Convention Center to Exhibitor in connection with the Expo.
- 9. Successors. This Contract will be binding on each party's successors.
- 10. Survival. The Parties' rights, duties, and legal remedies will survive the Conference, except those which by their terms require that Conference to be in the future. Examples of surviving provisions include Dispute Resolution, Liability, Indemnification, and Insurance. Examples of provisions not surviving include AAPA's duty to provide exhibit space to Exhibitor
- 11. Assignment. Exhibitor may not assign this Contract (including, without limitation, assigning its booth as described in Section 5) without AAPA's prior written consent in each instance. AAPA may assign this Contract without notice to Exhibitor.
- 12. Communications. Any notices, questions, or communication to Show Management regarding this Contract and AAPA may be sent to: 2318 Mill Road, Suite 1300, Alexandria, VA 22314; 571-319-4312 or exhibits@aapa.org

Signature on contract signifies that the company representative has read and agrees to the AAPA 2025 Exhibitor Rules & Regulations and is an authorized representative for the Exhibitor.
