

Dr. Maticotta trained as a clinical psychologist with an emphasis in behavioral medicine and health psychology. He has worked in community mental health, university student health centers, hospitals, and public schools. Currently, he is the Assistant Dean of Assessment and Strategic Initiatives and Assistant Professor in the College of Health Sciences at Western University of Health Sciences. He also teaches part-time in the psychology department of Pasadena City College. Professional service includes serving on the Board of Directors at IBHRI and serving as a scientific reviewer on the NIH Division of AIDS, Behavioral and Population Sciences RPHB 12 and 16 study sections.