

Lisa M. Gables, CPA

Chief Financial Officer/Chief Development Officer, AAPA

Lisa Gables is an association executive with extensive experience in health care and aging services. She is currently the Interim Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Development Officer for the American Academy of Physician Assistants (AAPA) where she is responsible for the financial management of the organization as well as fostering external strategic outreach to individuals and like-minded organizations. She is also responsible for developing and implementing an overarching and integrated strategy that generates opportunities to provide AAPA and PA Foundation funding to support their missions. For three years, Gables also served as the Executive Director of the PA Foundation.

Prior to joining AAPA and the PA Foundation, Gables was the Executive Director of the American Society of Consultant Pharmacists (ASCP) Foundation and the Chief Development Officer of ASCP where she was held similar roles. Before that she was the Executive Director of the National Adult Day Services Association, where she increased awareness of adult day services with federal regulators while managing all aspects of the association's operations. Prior to that, she was the Chief Financial Officer of the National Council on the Aging and Vice President of Finance and Business Development for Active Services Corporation, the nation's largest adult day services, home care and rehabilitation network.

Gables also served as Finance Manager and Senior Financial Analyst for Birmingham Baptist Medical Center and held financial positions with ReLife, Inc. and Ernst & Young. She is a certified public accountant with a degree in business administration and accounting from the University of Louisville, KY.

In addition to her career in aging and health services, Ms. Gables serves on the board and as Treasurer of the American Society on Aging. She is the past Treasurer of the Fairfax County Law Enforcement Foundation and currently serves as a volunteer with the Fairfax County Adult Protective Services Agency.
