Number of Questions *
In general, a minimum of 10 questions are required per credit. At their discretion, reviewers may approve fewer questions per credit if justified by the complexity of the questions and the time required for a learner to formulate a response. For example, clinical vignettes that require data collection as well as analysis can be time-consuming. Likewise, lengthy rationales of over 250 words may influence their decision.
Upload all of the self-assessment questions with rationales. *

Would you like to advertise this activity on AAPA's CME Calendar?
This option if for providers who have not already purchased advertising space. If your organization has already paid to have your entire catalog or this specific activity onto the AAPA CME calendar, please select 'no' and proceed to the next step in the application.
The AAPA CME Calendar is a space which can be used to market educational opportunities to the PA community and AAPA members. By purchasing advertising through this application, a posting will be placed on the calendar from this application's approval date through the start date of the activity.
Calendar listings are free of charge for AAPA Constituent Organizations. All other organizations are subject to a $250 per month fee, calculated per day, per posting. This option is only avilable to applications with a single occurrence. This cost will be added onto the final purchase price of this application. This fee is added onto the base review fee, upload fee, rush fee, and any other applicable fees. It will be reflected in your final purchase total for accreditation.
By purchasing calendar placement through this application you will be paying for placement from your accreditation date until your event's start date. If you do not wish to begin advertising immediately or have specific questions regarding promotions including calendar placement, email marketing, or any other opportunities please contact Tony Manigross directly.
Choosing 'no' does not disqualify you from the opportunity to be placed onto the CME calendar or any other advertising opportunities. You may apply for calendar placements outside of this application by using this application form or contacting Tony Manigross directly.
